AGENTS WANTED.

E employ thousands of Agents every year, and have good openings for a large number more, either men or women. One of our lady Agents lately reports a profit of $161.00 in ten days. One has made $34.00 in one day this spring. One has ordered one thousand books in the last few weeks. If you are out of employment or wish to make more than you are now making, send for one of our private Circulars. Below we give the titles of some of our books.

IMMANUEL, Or The Life of Our Lord Jesus Christ, By ZACHARY EDDY, D. D.

LARGE OCTAVO, 756 PAGES.

This is the best book that has been published on this subject for the majority of readers. We shall be pleased to send you a Circular containing favorable notices from the leading clergymen and papers of the country.

The Laws of Health in Relation to the Human Form, By DRS. BRINTON & NAPHEYS.

This work is just out and is meeting with a very large sale. It contains about 100 Recipes in relation to health and the toilet, that are invaluable to any family, and can be prepared at a trifling cost. We have Agents who are ordering from one hundred to one thousand copies each, and it is probably as great a success as any book offered for a long time.

Old Agents who wish to make money will certainly examine this book before taking an agency for any other.

We publish three of Mrs. SPENCER's books,

TRIED AND TRUE, ORA, THE LOST WIFE, RIGHT AND WRONG.

Nearly 50,000 of these books have been sold in a short time and they are now selling very rapidly. We have Agents who have sold one hundred copies a week this winter and spring.

Send for a Circular before Engaging for any other Book.

We have a large list of Chromos and Engravings but have no room to describe them. We shall add to our stock constantly, and you can always be sure of finding a good book, Chromo or Engraving, among our list, and good territory for canvassing. For particulars address

Springfield in 1870.

A GENERAL VIEW.

THE term "infant city," so often applied to Springfield in a spirit of good-natured raillery, with sometimes an admixture of jealousy, also, by the inhabitants of neighboring villages, when this most ancient of towns in the Connecticut Valley was first incorporated a city, and for several years thereafter, is no longer heard. Springfield has since achieved such a lusty growth, and taken on so visibly and unmistakably the best characteristics of a city, that even our most jealous neighbors have ceased to deride us, and, when they will speak soberly and honestly, even acknowledge that they take a pride in the growth of Springfield almost equal to that of our own citizens. And well they may; for in one sense the city and the neighboring towns are members of the same family, children of the same mother,—the old town of Springfield, which originally included an area much larger than at present. The city may now be designated as the oldest child, which has succeeded to the old homestead; and Chicopee, Longmeadow, etc., as children who have gone out a little to set up for themselves. They are not so large, or so rich, as the eldest of the family; but they are all "well off," and the interests of the whole are, to a great degree, identical. Hence, whatever benefits Springfield and contributes to its growth and fame, benefits the surrounding towns as well, and the converse is equally true. Therefore, in a little glorification of Springfield, which is certainly proper in a Directory, enlarged this year to quite metropolitan dimensions, we trust that our neighbors will excuse any crowing over our position as the metropolis of Western Massachusetts that may seem to be too loud, remembering that we have them and their good ever in mind, though our space as well as our theme may demand a pretty close sticking to the first person singular.

THE GROWTH OF EIGHTEEN YEARS.

Springfield was incorporated as a city May 25, 1852, that day being, by a happy coincidence, the two hundred and sixteenth anniversary of the foundation of the town. The population at that time was probably not far from 12,000, as the census of 1850 made it 11,330. The valuation in 1854, two years later, was $7,762,250. In 1860, the population of the city was 15,199, and the valuation $8,669,806; and by the census of 1865, our population was shown to be 22,035, valuation $13,379,212. The last report of the assessors makes the valuation of the city $20,448,160, of which $15,125,520, is real estate; and the population is variously estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000. We incline to the belief that the last number is nearest the truth, though it is hardly worth while to guess about a matter that will be so soon determined for us by this year's census.

It will be seen by the above figures that the increase in population and wealth since Springfield became a city, has been mostly in the last ten years. From 1852 to 1860, the city, indeed, had continuous, healthy growth; but it was slow compared to that since 1860. The war, which necessitated great increase in the force and production of the Armory, gave a fillip to business and enterprise, and furnished us an impetus whose influence will be felt in the prosperity of the city for many years to come, though, as usual, there were plenty of old fogies who predicted that Springfield would become a "dead town" when the war closed.

The advance of the city is shown, not alone by the statistics of population and valuation, but by increase in all the religious and intellectual facilities, and material appliances and surroundings that mark the thriving place. The ten years, now closing, have been a marked era in Springfield on account of the erection of new churches, school-houses, and business blocks; by reason of the digging of sewers and the macadamizing of streets; through the introduction of an unlimited supply of pure water, and the general introduction of gas for public and private use; by the substitution of the horse railroad for the ancient omnibus,—as much as by the increase in population and the growth in wealth; and some of these things we will look at a little in detail, though briefly.

NEW CHURCHES.

The value of the new churches erected in Springfield since 1860 falls little, if any, short of half a million dollars; indeed, with the exception of St. Michael's, this increase in the church property of the city is to be reckoned up as the work of the last five years.

Springfield now ranks the third place in the State in the value of its church property, only Boston and Cambridge going ahead of it, while in population and valuation this was the eighth city in the State by the census of 1865, though probably our rank ought now to be advanced to the fifth or sixth place. The new churches, in detail, with their cost in round numbers, are as follows: St. Michael's, $60,000; Church of the Unity, $150,000; Memorial Church, $125,000; State Street Baptist Church, $50,000; St. Paul's, $50,000; Trinity Church, $75,000; Florence Street Church, $15,000; and besides these there have been chapels erected by the Second Adventists, the Swedenborgians, and the Union Methodists, (colored,) the total value of which cannot be less than $15,000, while it is more likely to exceed that sum. As new religious societies have been formed as fast as new churches have been erected, all the old edifices are still used, with possibly one exception, so that it will be seen the religious needs of the city are well provided for, at least in comparison with other places, though if all our people should suddenly have a disposition to go to church we fear the meeting-houses of the city would still be too few to contain them. The North Congregational and the Episcopal Churches have had new edifices in contemplation for some time, and will probably achieve them in the near future.

SCHOOL-HOUSES AND SCHOOLS.

Five years ago Springfield was as poorly equipped in the way of school-houses as a thriving city well could be, and our schools were only of ordinary excellence. To-day we have a full complement of elegant and commodious school-houses, and our schools rank among the best in the State; indeed we believe the average percentage of attendance is higher than in any other city or town. The new school-houses erected since 1866, with their cost, including ground, are as follows: Hooker school-house, North Main Street, $45,688; Elm Street school-house, $48,253; Oak Street, $45,688; Worthington Street, $52,636; Indian Orchard, $28,842. Two hundred and ten thousand dollars, in round numbers, for school-houses, in five years, in a place like Springfield, is doing pretty well, and it is no wonder that people who have children to educate are coming here in large numbers. A new high school-house is greatly needed and must come in a year or two. The present edifice is much too small, even for our own scholars, and we want and must have a building that will allow us to invite in the best scholars from the surrounding towns which may not feel able to keep up high schools of their own. Our schools are now thoroughly graded, are under the charge of an efficient superintendent, and bid fair to be still better in the future than they are now. The new school-houses mentioned above will accommodate from 400 to 450 scholars each; and the total number of scholars in our eighty-seven schools last year was 3,768, which was 90 per cent. of the whole number of children of the school age returned to the assessors.

THE CITY LIBRARY.

So closely connected with our schools in the work of educating the people is the City Library, that here seems to be the place for noticing that institution, of which our citizens are all proud, and deservedly so. The library has been located heretofore in rooms in the City Hall building; but there has just been completed, especially for it, a new building on State Street, on a lot given by Mr. George Bliss. This building is from designs by George Hathorne, a young New York architect of much promise, is modified Gothic in style, built of brick, with Nova Scotia stone trimmings, on a foundation of granite, and is beautiful to look upon, as well as convenient and commodious in its inside arrangements. It will furnish accommodations for the library, with room for growth, for many years to come. The present number of books in the library is 30,000, and is rapidly increasing. Connected with the library is a museum, which, under the fostering care of several of our citizens, has already attained quite large proportions; and with improved quarters in the new library building, is sure to grow, and receive more attention from the people than it yet has done.

NEW BUILDINGS, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE.

The rapid increase in the population and business of the city have of course necessitated the erection of many new buildings, and the value of edifices completed in 1869 alone is estimated at a million and a half of dollars. Probably it is not much out of the way to say that the annual average values of the buildings erected in the city for the last five years has been a million of dollars. To a large extent these buildings have been cheap structures, adapted to immediate wants. Shelter is the first necessity, and truth compels us to say that most of the new dwellings and a large proportion of the new business edifices have seemed to have only this end in view. But there has been a good beginning of buildings of a better and more permanent character. There are many dwellings in town now which testify to the taste and wealth as well as the necessities of their owners; and architectural excellence, as well as solid and substantial work, mark many of the more lately erected public and business edifices. We have already mentioned the new churches, school-houses, and the city library building, and in the line of business blocks of which any city might well be proud, we may point to the elegant granite building containing the offices of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, the blocks erected and occupied respectively by the Springfield Institution for Savings, the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, the First and Second National Banks, the lately remodeled Foot's block, the new Opera House, Haynes' Hotel block, Barnes' and Union blocks, the beginning of Hurlbut's block, and a long list of others only less costly and elegant. A new and commodious passenger depot for the joint use of the several railroads centering here, a new granite block to be built the coming season by the Agawam National Bank and the Powers Paper Company acting in unison, and a new Court House, to be built by the County, are already decided on for construction in the near future, and other lesser enterprises that are in contemplation will make building brisk for a long time to come. The ten years to come may not see so many new edifices erected in the city as the ten years just past, but there is sure to be a goodly number and of a permanent character.

RAILROADS.

The one great secret of the steady growth of Springfield is its importance as a railroad center. The Boston & Albany Railroad, two hundred miles long, with a capital of $20,000,000 forming a link in the most important line west from Boston, passes through the city from east to west, and has its principal offices here. The Springfield, Hartford & New Haven Railroad, with $6,300,000 capital, finishes the southern connection, and, with the Boston & Albany road, forms part of the most popular through route between New York and Boston,—one the metropolis of the whole country, and the other of New England; and the Connecticut River Railroad, with $1,700,000 of capital, takes the traveler northward, up the beautiful valley of the Connecticut, to connecting lines that will carry him to any part of northern New England or Canada. Two more new roads—the Springfield & Longmeadow, and the Springfield & Farmington Valley, are chartered, and will be completed in a few years, perhaps months. These new roads, while they are never likely to become important as through lines, like the roads already existing, are still sure to be valuable adjuncts to the present roads, and to bring tribute to the business of Springfield. Our city is already one of the most important railroad centres of New England, and with the new roads completed it will have facilities for travel and transportation that will make it still more desirable for residence and business of all kinds. The plans for the improvements long in contemplation by the Boston & Albany Railroad, which will obviate the dangerous Main Street crossing, and that at Bridge Street, also, we hope, and which include the building of a new station-house, already mentioned, are now nearly perfected, and the work of carrying them into execution will soon begin. These improvements will necessitate the expending of at least a million of dollars here,—indeed, the expenditure may be twice that sum; and as a good share of the money will go into the hands of Springfield mechanics and traders, these improvements will have an important influence in keeping business “lively” for the few months or years to come.

MANUFACTURES.

Of course, in speaking of the influence of the railroads in the growth of Springfield, we did not intend to underrate the value of the manufacturing interest, especially the United States Armory. Doubtless our city would have grown steadily and surely these last eighteen years, had the Armory not been located here. But that the Armory gave a great impetus to the town during the war can not be denied; and besides directly increasing the population, and with the trade of the city, it has contributed to our prosperity even more valuably in an indirect way, in inducing the location here of smaller manufactories, especially of firearms. During the war the number of men employed at the Armory sometimes exceeded 3,000, and the daily product of guns was 1,000. The number of men now employed is about 700, and they are mostly engaged in repairing and cleaning old muskets that have been in service, and in altering the old-fashioned muzzle-loaders to the new style of breech-loading guns.

The other manufacturing interests of Springfield have become so numerous that space fails us in which to mention all in detail, and it would be invidious to speak of a portion and neglect the rest. For details we must refer to the advertisements of each concern, elsewhere, and be content in saying, generally, here, that the manufacturing interests of the city are already large and varied, and are constantly increasing in number and scope. In his History of Western Massachusetts, published in 1854, Dr. Holland found only twenty-two manufacturing concerns worthy of special mention. Judging by his standard there must be five or six times as many now that would require notice. Several foundries and other workshops in iron, which are in existence now, had been started then, and the city had already begun to have a reputation for the manufacture of railroad cars, bridges, paints and chemicals, jewelry, candy, and various kinds of machinery. Almost all the branches of manufacture in existence then are still carried on on a greatly enlarged scale, and there have been added the making of small fire-arms, cartridges, many branches of woolen and cotton goods, buttons, skates, silver plate, water filters,—large enough for a paper-mill and small enough for a private house,—soda fountains, toys and games, children's wagons, watches, paper collars and boxes, books, trunks, spectacles, ale, corks, and a thousand things, almost, besides. If we should include the products of Chicopee and Holyoke, as we might with good reason, for this city is the head-quarters of many of the manufacturers there, the list might be indefinitely extended. A notable feature in our manufacturing growth for the last few years is the introduction of small establishments, carried on by a few hands, sometimes even by the proprietor alone, in one room of a large building, and this is the class of manufacturers and of mechanics that ought to be specially encouraged and provided for by our capitalists. Many of these small concerns will grow to be big ones, and of great importance to the city, if they can be helped and fostered a little at the beginning. There is no reason why the manufactures of Springfield should not grow indefinitely. We have every advantage of location and facilities for transportation, and all that is necessary now is that capital should hold out a generous hand to ingenuity and skill.

BUSINESS AND TRADE.

During the rapid building up of the city in the last ten years, plenty of croakers have been found who "could not see who was to occupy all the new buildings;" but there has been no lack of tenants either for dwelling-houses or business blocks, particularly the latter. Indeed, it almost seems as though stores of all kinds had increased faster than the population. Almost entirely the growth of the last ten years is the wholesale business of the city, amounting last year to eighteen million dollars, as was figured up from actual returns of dealers, in a late article in The Republican. Probably more is done at wholesale in paper and groceries than in any other two articles; but there is considerable wholesaling in most other branches of trade carried on here, and the business is bound to grow. Springfield is the natural business center of a wide extent of territory, containing many thrifty towns, and there is no reason why our dealers should not command almost their entire business. We have no means of getting at the figures to express the amount of the yearly retail trade of the city; but it is very large and constantly increasing. People come here from a radius of many miles around to do their shopping, and the general verdict is that nowhere can they do better for their money. May the time never come when our dealers have a less honorable and generous reputation than now.

WANTED, A HISTORIAN.

As might be expected in a place growing so rapidly as Springfield, the aspect of the city is changing very fast. Any one, even, who should come here after an absence of ten years, would hardly recognize the place; and as for the old town of fifty years ago there is very little remaining. There are a few old landmarks left, but these, like the rest, will soon be swept away by the march of improvement. One old building that dates back to 1820, is still standing and in use,—the carriage shop of J. & W. Loomis, on the corner of Sanford and Berlin streets. This building was originally erected by the town and county for joint use as a town hall and court house, and stood where Sanford street enters Main street. For nearly or quite a century it was used for its intended purpose, and was afterwards occupied as a church chapel before being devoted to its present use. A few rods north of Cooley's Hotel there stands a small wooden building which was the first printing-office in Springfield; and there are a few other similar landmarks still remaining to remind us of the past. There are also a few old men yet living whose minds are rich repositories of interesting facts relating to our early history; to some extent they have furnished facts for publication; but all that has yet been printed of Springfield's history has been fragmentary and incomplete. There ought to be a complete and comprehensive history of the town up to this time, and we cannot better close our brief sketch of the city as it is to-day, than by urging that some means be taken, either by the city government or by individuals, to give us a good history of Springfield. Much material is now available that will soon be lost, and there should be no delay in entering upon the work.

Fire Districts, Etc.

The following is the city ordinance establishing a fire district, and regulating the construction and moving of buildings therein:

Section 1. All that part of the city of Springfield lying and being within five hundred feet of either line of Main street between Howard street on the south and Cypress street on the north, and within two hundred feet of Main street between said Cypress street on the south and Bradford street on the north, is established a district within which no person nor corporation shall erect, construct or place, or cause to be erected, constructed or placed, any wooden building or any part thereof, unless the same shall be of the size hereinafter described, namely: not to exceed the dimensions of eight feet square upon the ground, or if of any other dimensions, not to cover a surface of more than sixty-four superficial feet, the walls or sides thereof not to exceed ten feet in height from the top of the sills to the eaves.

Sect. 2. Any person or corporation may affix to any building which now is or may hereafter be lawfully erected or placed within said district, any shed or sheds open on one side and not exceeding fifteen feet in depth, measured from the side of the building which they join. The highest point of the roof of such shed not to be more than fifteen feet from the ground—provided, however, that no such shed shall be erected or placed within said district unless the roof thereof is covered with fire-proof covering.

Sect. 3. Any person or corporation may move any wooden building in said district from any place therein to any other place within the same, but not to a point nearer Main street than the same originally stood, written permission therefor having first been obtained from the mayor of the city, and such permission shall be given by the mayor only in pursuance of a vote of the city council.

Sect. 4. Whoever violates any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance shall forfeit and pay for each offense a sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Fire Alarm Telegraph.

How to GIVE ALARM FOR FIRE—Unlock the nearest box, pull down the hook once to the bottom of the slot, and let go. This gives the desired alarm all over the city, repeating itself five times. Remain by the box a moment after giving alarm, and if no clicking is heard in the box, pull again; if you still hear no clicking, go to the next nearest box, and give the alarm from that. Be sure the box is locked before leaving it.

CAUTION—Never pull the hook while the bell or gong in the box is striking. Never touch the hook except to give an alarm of fire. Never signal for a fire at a distance, nor for a chimney. Inform yourself of the location of boxes and keys near you. Keys are in possession of responsible citizens near each box, and the police and officers of the Fire Department.

Churches.

Location—Pastors—Time of Meetings—Membership—Historical Facts.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Court Square, between Elm and Court streets. Founded 1637. Rev. Henry M. Parsons, pastor; settled 1854; salary, $4,500. Deacons, Benjamin Eldridge, (retired,) John R. Hixon, Roderrick Burt, Elbridge Brigham, Charles H. Smith, Addison P. Ware, Henry Morris. Superintendents of Bible Service, James L. Johnson, W. J. Holland, Nelson C. Newell.

Meetings—Sabbath, at 10 1-4 A. M., (with preaching,) 2 1-4 P. M., (Bible service and Sabbath-school,) 7 P. M., (prayer.) Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting, 7 1-2 P. M.; Wednesday night, teachers' meeting, 7 1-2 P. M.; Thursday, female prayer-meeting, 3 P. M., and church prayer-meeting at 7 1-2 P. M.

This is our oldest church, and but one year younger than Springfield. It has had few pastors, those preceding the present one having averaged a term of thirty-six years each. They were: Rev. George Moxon (1637-1652), Rev. Peletiah Grover (1661-1692), Rev. Daniel Brewer (1693-1733), Rev. Robert Breck (1736-1784), Rev. Bezaleel Howard, D. D. (1785-1809), Rev. Samuel Osgood, D. D. (1809-1862). Dr. Osgood is well remembered for his faithfulness, ready wit, quaint sayings, and kindness of heart.

Under the present pastor the church has made a net gain in membership of 248, and now numbers 684; but 112 are non-resident or temporarily absent. During the past year, the congregations on Sunday averaged 504 in the morning, 377 in the afternoon, and 280 in the evening; benevolent contributions, $2,500; total raised for church purposes, $7,500. The Sunday-school numbers 511.

The First Church Annual is published early in each year, and gives the pastor's New Year's sermon, a resume of church work, the Sunday-school reports, and other matters of interest.

OLIVET CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—State street, opposite Armory grounds. Founded in 1833. Rev. L. H. Cone, pastor; settled in 1867; salary, $2,500. Deacons, William A. Spooner, B. F. Quinby, E. A. Hubbard, George Dillingham. Sunday-school superintendent, the pastor; B. F. Quinby, assistant superintendent.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M., (Bible service and Sunday-school;) 2 1-2 P. M., (preaching;) 7 P. M., (prayer;) Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting, and on Thursday night, church prayer-meeting, at 7 1-2 P. M. in winter and 7 3-4 P. M. in summer.

This church is the second in age of its denomination in the city. The membership is now 270. The gifts for benevolence have increased from $337.40 in 1867 to $1,100 in 1869, and the total contributions last year were over $8,000, freeing the society from debt.

The Sabbath forenoon is given to the Bible service, (Sunday-school,) in which the pastor takes an active part. This is well attended, especially by the young, numbering 256; and many of the older people, who are necessarily kept at home in the morning, are accommodated by the afternoon preaching. The average congregation is 400.

SOUTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Bliss street, near Main. Founded in 1843. S. G. Buckingham, D. D., pastor; settled, January, 1847; salary, $3,000. Deacons, Erastus Hayes, Henry A. Robinson, A. F. Cowles, O. W. Wilcox. Sunday-school superintendent, Rev. J. L. Graves.

Meetings—Sabbath, at 10 1-4 A. M., (with preaching;) 2 1-2 P. M. in winter, and 3 P. M. in summer, (Sunday-school:) 7 P. M. in winter, 7 1-2 P. M. in summer, (prayer.) Thursday night, church prayer-meeting, at 7 1-2 P. M. in winter, 7 3-4 P. M. in summer.

This church had but one pastor before the present one, Rev. Noah Porter, who was dismissed in 1847 to accept a professorship in Yale College. The membership is 360; average attendance on the Sabbath, 350; benevolent contributions the last year, $3,147. The Sunday-school numbers 230.

A mission Sunday-school has been gathered by members of this church, near corner of Union street and Eastern avenue, and numbers 96, with H. S. Lee as superintendent. A new chapel will soon be completed for them, with accommodations for 300 scholars.

NORTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—West side of Main street, between West Worthington and West Bridge streets. Founded in 1846. Rev. Richard G. Greene, pastor; settled in 1866; salary, $3,500. Deacons, E. G. Norton, O. D. Morse, J. W. Hawks, L. S. Stowe. Sunday-school superintendent, H. S. Brooks.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M., 7 P. M. in winter, 7 1-2 P. M. in summer; Sabbath-school immediately after the morning service. Sunday-school prayer-meeting, Monday night, and church prayer-meeting, Thursday night,—each at 7 1-2 P. M. in winter, 7 3-4 P. M. in summer.

This church was organized with twenty-two members, and held meetings at first in Frost's Hall on Sanford street. The pastors preceding the present one were: Raymond H. Seely, D. D., dismissed to take charge of the American Chapel at Paris, France; Rev. James Drummond, removed by death; Rev. L. Clark Seelye, dismissed to accept a professorship in Amherst College. A colony of fifty-five members from this church, was organized into the Memorial Church, October 27, 1865.

The membership of the North Church, May 1, 1870, was 388, about 100 of whom were absent or non-resident; and about 40 members of other churches are regular communicants here. The number of separate families represented in the parish is 250; parishioners, regular or irregular in attendance, about 1,000; usual congregation, about 400. The Sunday-school numbers 331. The annual expenditure is not far from $6,500, $2,400 being for music.

Though the house of worship is surpassed by many new churches, yet when completed, more than twenty years ago, it was regarded as one of the finest in this region. Its architecture is gothic, with a tower fronting on the street, and a large vestry in the basement. The auditorium has 700 sittings, and is lighted mostly from the roof.

The mission Sunday-school on York street is partly sustained by the North and partly by the First Church, and numbers 70. Dr. N. E. Ames of the former church is superintendent. It meets on Sunday at 2 1-4 P. M.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH AT INDIAN ORCHARD—Pulpit vacant. Deacons, Jacob S. Eaton, A. J. Woodman. Superintendent of Sunday-school, Chas. J. Goodwin.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M. and 2 P. M. Prayer-meeting at Library Hall, Friday evening at 7 1-2 P. M.

This church has a membership of 52, and an average congregation of about 130. There were contributed the past year about $200 for the Sunday-school, and $900 for church purposes. A pastor will soon be settled, and there is talk of building a new church.

FREE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH (colored)—Sanford street. Founded in 1849. Rev. Samuel Harrison, pastor; settled, November, 1866; salary, $600. The membership is 40; congregation about 150. The Sunday-school numbers 60; Eli Baptist, superintendent. The church receives a small amount of outside aid, but is growing in numbers and strength.

MEMORIAL CHURCH, UNION EVANGELICAL—Round Hill, junction of Main, Chicopee, and Bradford streets, and Plainfield road. Organized October 29, 1865. Rev. W. T. Eustis, pastor; settled June 2, 1869; salary, $4,000. Deacons, J. D. Stratton, Joshua Grant, D. J. Bartlett, A. F. Niles. Sunday-school superintendent, J. D. Stratton.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-4 A. M. and 3 P. M. in winter, and in summer the second service is at 6 P. M.; every second Sunday evening in the month, the meeting is a service of praise. Sabbath-school, 11 3-4 A. M. Prayer-meetings, Sunday and Thursday evenings, in the chapel; young people's meeting, Wednesday evening. Social meetings on alternate Friday evenings. Teachers' meeting, every fortnight, Wednesday evening, in pastor's study.

North of the Boston and Albany Railroad, there was a large population, but no house of worship, nor regular preaching, when this church was formed. It has done a missionary work here. Many of its members were from the North Church; some came also from other religious societies. The help of the children was assured when Scattergood Sunday-school came in. The latter had been started in 1861 by a Methodist lady, and largely sustained by the Pynchon Street Church.

The membership is about 200; the average congregation, 600; and the Sunday-school numbers about 500. The sum raised for church purposes the past year was $13,000.

The house of worship was built of Monson granite, in the gothic style, costing about $120,000.

CHURCH OF THE UNITY, UNITARIAN (See Illustration)—East State street, above Maple street. Founded in 1819. Rev. Charles A. Humphreys, pastor; settled, November 29, 1865; salary, $3,600. Superintendent of Sunday-school, F. S. Bailey.

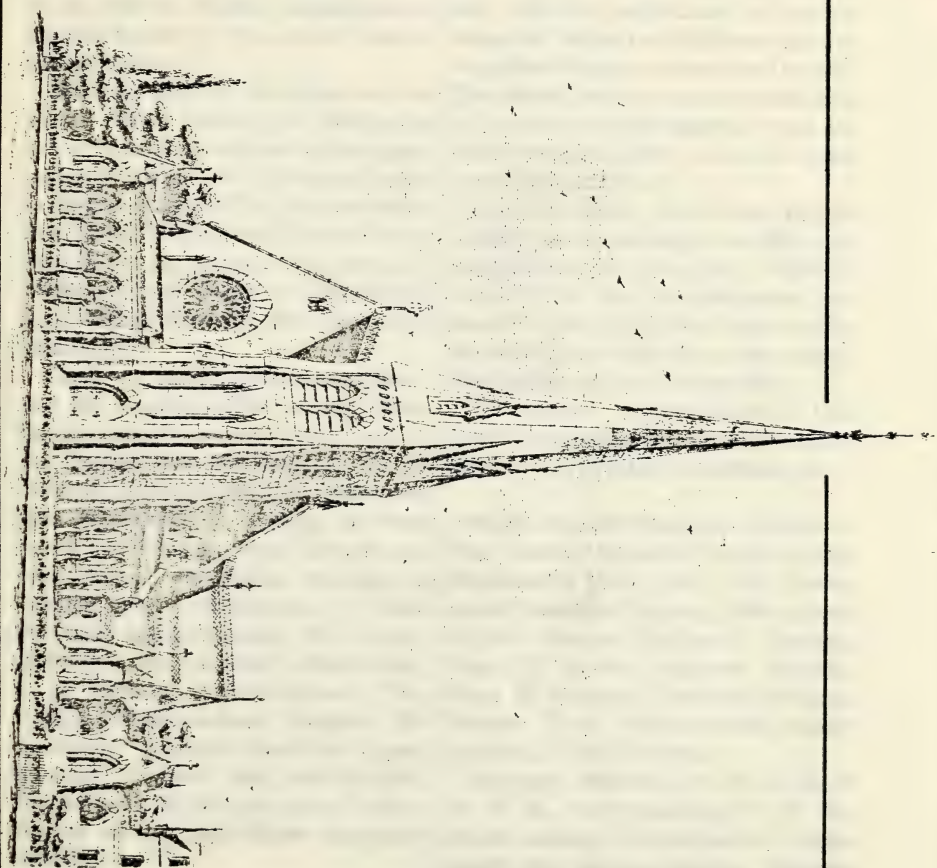

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M., 7 1-2 P. M. Strangers are shown to seats fifteen minutes before the morning service, and ten minutes before the evening service. Sunday-school immediately after the morning service.

This church was formed of a number of members who left the First Church because they held more liberal views than the pastor. They were incorporated as the "Third Congregational Society of Springfield." Jonathan Dwight, one of their number, gave to the society a meeting-house, built at his own expense, and of such dimensions and elegance as they directed. Other members subscribed sixteen thousand dollars, as a permanent fund for the support of preaching. The pastors preceding the present one were: Rev. William B. O. Peabody, Rev. Geo. F. Simmons, and Rev. Francis Tiffany.

The society is represented by 200 families and over 700 parishioners. The church membership is about 100; average congregation, 400. The Sunday-school has 130 pupils.

The present house of worship was completed and dedicated early in 1869, and cost $150,000. It is of the Italian-Grecian style of architecture, and built of brown stone from the Longmeadow quarries. The audience room is 120 feet long and 56 feet wide, with walls 30 feet high on the inside; back of this is the chapel or Sunday-school room, 55 feet long and 24 feet wide. A tower rises from the north-west corner, terminating in a spire, whose point is 144 feet from the ground, and all of stone. For situation, style of finish and general appearance, this church edifice ranks among the finest in the country.

CHRIST CHURCH, EPISCOPAL—State street, near junction of Chestnut and Maple streets. Founded in 1838. Alexander Burgess, D. D., rector; instituted, November 28, 1869; salary, $3,000 and use of rectory. Wardens, J. B. Stebbins and R. B. Hildreth; Vestrymen, J. D. Brewer, E. S. Allin, A. J. McIntosh, William Patton, Francis Norton, R. G.

Shumway and Thomas Warner, Jr.; Clerk, J. H. Morton; Treasurer, J. D. Safford.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M., 7 1-2 P. M. On the first Sabbath afternoon of every month, the three mission Sunday-schools assemble at the church with the home school there, for catechising. Meetings are held in the chapel, Wednesday at 10 A. M., Friday at 7 1-2 P. M.; and on Monday evening after the first Sunday in the month, there is one for teachers.

Meetings held in the chapel at the United States Armory, and afterwards at the Town Hall, resulted in the organization of this church. The rectors, prior to the installation of Dr. Burgess, were: Rev. Henry W. Lee, now Bishop of Iowa; Rev. Henry W. Adams; Rev. Abram N. Littlejohn, now Bishop of Long Island; Rev. William S. Child; Rev. George H. McKnight.

There are nearly 275 communicants, and 200 families in the parish. Four Sunday-schools are sustained; one at the church, with 250 members, R. B. Hildreth, superintendent; St. James mission Sunday-school, meeting at Oak street school-house, John Thonger, superintendent; St. Peters, meeting at Central street school-house, J. Louis Stebbins, superintendent; St. Johns, meeting at Charles street school-house, J. E. Shipman, superintendent. The mission Sunday-schools number 175 members. The sum raised for church purposes, the past year, was $14,500; $3,000 being for the payment of a debt for the rectory, and $2,500 charitable offerings.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Corner Main street and Harrison avenue. Founded in 1811. George B. Ide, D. D., pastor; settled, October, 1852; salary, $2,500. Deacons, Harvey Foster, John E. Taylor, Isaac E. Williams, H. C. Martin, George A. Lawrence. Sunday-school superintendent, George P. Geer.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M.,

7 1-2 P. M.; Sunday-school, immediately after the morning service. Thursday evening, prayer-meeting, 7 1-2 P. M. in winter, 7 3-4 P. M. in summer.

This church was organized with 19 members, at the Water Shops, and struggled for years in poverty and feebleness, without pastor or house of worship. Its first church edifice, built in 1821, was near the Water Shops; the second, built ten years later, was at the corner of Maple and Mulberry streets; the present house was completed in 1847. The church has since greatly prospered, and a colony of 143 members was dismissed from it in 1864 to form the State Street Baptist Church.

The membership of the First Baptist is 433; average congregation, 450; total contributions the past year, $5,900, of which $1,700 was for benevolent purposes; $1,075 of the latter sum was for the aid of poor churches in the county. The Sunday-school numbers 300.

The mission Sunday-school in Carlisle district, connected with this church, numbers 40; average attendance, 25.

STATE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH—State street, opposite Dwight street. Organized in 1864. Rev. A. K. Potter, pastor; installed, January, 1865; salary, $2,500. Deacons, Nathan G. Corning, John H. Lawton, Alpheus Hawkes, Jonas H. Hastings, David M. Chapin, Andrew Titus. Sunday-school superintendent, D. H. Brigham.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M., 2 1-4 P. M., with preaching; 7 P. M., prayer meeting; Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting; Wednesday night, teachers' meeting; Thursday night, church prayer-meeting. There is also a prayer-meeting on Tuesday night at Central street ward room. The hour for week-day meetings is 7 1-2 P. M. in winter, and 7 3-4 P. M. in summer.

This church was formed of a colony from the First Baptist. In the beginning, its motto was "work," and it made the Sunday-school a prominent feature. In six years, it has had a marvelous growth, and the Sunday-school is very large. The church membership is 452; average congregation, 600; number in the Sunday-school, 811, average attendance over 500; total raised for church purposes the past year, $7,985.

The "State Street Annual" is published early in each year, and contains the pastor's New Year's sermon, reports of the church and Sunday-school work, notices, suggestions, etc.

The house of worship is new, and cost nearly $50,000. It is built of brick, conveniently arranged internally, with nearly 1,000 sittings in the audience-room. There are two towers, the one in front being 164 feet high.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH—Corner Florence and Hancock streets. Founded in 1815. Rev. C. D. Hills, pastor; appointed, 1870; salary, not yet determined. Sunday-school superintendent, James Brierly.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-4 A. M., 2 1-4 P. M., with preaching. Sunday and Tuesday evenings, prayer-meetings. The society worshipping here is the parent of the others of its denomination in the city. Asbury Chapel, its former house of worship, was built in 1821, and occupied in two weeks after work was commenced on it; it cost $300. The present house of worship was built in 1866, and cost nearly $15,000.

The church membership is 90; average congregation, 250; contributions the past year, $1,345; number in the Sunday-school, 190.

UNION STREET METHODIST CHURCH—Corner Union and Mulberry streets. Founded in 1823. Rev. J. H. Mansfield, pastor; salary, $1,250. Sunday-school superintendent, Charles E. Evans.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-4 A. M., and 2 1-4 P. M. Prayer-meetings are held Sunday evening, 7 P. M., Monday evening (young people's meeting), 7 1-2 P. M., and Thursday evening, 7 1-2 P. M.

The seats here are free, a custom which only two or three of our churches have adopted; but in all, a hearty welcome and seats are given to all who come.

The membership is 180; and there are 63 probationers; average congregation, 240. The contributions last year were $3,800. The house of worship has been repaired at a cost of $1,200.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH (See Illustration)—East Bridge street, near Main street. Founded 1844. Rev. J. Oramel Peck, pastor; appointed April, 1870; salary, $2,000.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-4 A. M., and 2 1-4 P. M., preaching; Sunday-school, 12 M. Church prayer-meetings, Sunday and Thursday evenings; young people's prayer-meeting, Monday evening; class-meetings, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, all at the church, 7 1-2 P. M.

This church was formerly on Pyncheon street. Though a colony left it to form the Central Methodist Church, its old house was too small for the congregation. Soon after its removal to the new house, late in the fall of 1869, a revival commenced in connection with the labors of Mrs. Van Cott and the Troy Praying Band. Full meetings were held every evening, and many also during weekdays, and there were many conversions.

The membership is 300, and there are 150 probationers; average congregation, 750; Sunday-school, 432. The annual current expenditure is about $3,500.

The Trinity church edifice was commenced in April, 1868, and completed so as to be dedicated December 1, 1869. But it was not entirely finished until the spring of 1870. The character of the design throughout is that of a plain, symmetrical treatment of round-arched architecture—technically "Romanesque." In general plan, the building is rectangular, the tower projecting six feet from the front, and the chancel four feet in the rear. The extreme length of the main building is 122 feet, and the extreme width 74 feet. The tower is 22 feet square, rising in that form 100 feet, and the spire above the tower is 85 feet to the top of the gilt cross, making a total height of 185 feet from the sidewalk. The materials are brick, laid in cement and black mortar, with trimmings of Longmeadow free-stone. The walls are very thick, and vaulted to insure dryness. In the basement is a vestibule extending the whole width of the church; a vestry, 68 by 70 feet, and 15 feet high; a juvenile Sunday-school room, 30 by 24 feet, opening into the vestry by mammoth sliding-doors; on one side of the latter, a ladies' room, with kitchen below, and on the other side, a gentlemen's room,—all beautifully carpeted and furnished. The audience-room is reached by two broad flights of stairs, and is 96 by 70 feet clear on the floor, exclusive of ample space for the large organ and choir, and the speaker's platform; and the walls are 24 feet high, the extreme height of the room being 36 feet. Over the upper vestibule are the pastor's study and a committee-room, both handsomely furnished. For light, ventilation, solidity of construction, and appropriate adaptation to its various uses, the new church edifice is a model. Its entire cost, including land, was $73,000. The architect was Samuel J. F. Thayer of Boston. The building committee were: Willis Phelps, (president,) Horace Smith, C. A. Winchester, Dr. Horace Jacobs, James Abbe, George B. Treadwell, C. D. Hollister, Milton Bradley, and L. E. Ladd, (clerk and treasurer.) Contractors,—for wood-work, Clement & Creesy of Lawrence; for brick and stone-work, B. F. Farrar of this city; for fresco decorations, P. A. Butler of Boston.

CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH—Main street, opposite Bliss street. Founded 1867. Rev. Charles T. Johnson, pastor; appointed 1870; salary, $1,300.

Meetings—Sabbath, with preaching, 10 1-4 A. M. and 2 1-4 P. M. Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Church prayer-meetings, Sunday evening at 7 P. M. and Thursday evening at 7 1-2 P. M.; young people's prayer-meeting, Monday evening at 7 1-2 P. M.

This church was organized with a few members from the Pynchon Street Church. There are now 90 members, 30 probationers, about 150 in the congregation, and 200 in the Sunday-school. The society own a parsonage, and hold meetings in the house of worship formerly occupied by the Universalist church.

UNION AMERICAN METHODIST (colored)—Rev. George Bailey, pastor; settled, 1866. Sunday-school superintendent, Edward Williams. Meetings, with preaching on the Sabbath, at 10 1-2 A. M. and 2 1-2 P. M. in winter; in summer, the afternoon service is at 3 P. M. Sunday-school at 12 M. Prayer-meeting, Sunday evening at 7 1-2 P. M. in winter and 7 P. M. in summer, and Tuesday evening at 8 P. M. Class-meeting, Thursday evening at 8 P. M. The membership is 56; congregation about 150; Sunday-school, 20.

The congregation is largely made up of people from the South. Their chapel was formerly familiar as the Soldier's Rest, near the depot, and was removed here and neatly fitted up. The fence on each side nearly as high as the eaves, shutting out the daylight, and painted black, was not built by the society.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, UNIVERSALIST—Chestnut street, corner of East Bridge street. Founded in 1827. Rev. H. R. Nye, pastor; settled, June, 1867; salary, $3,000. Deacons, Ethan N. Lewis, J. G. Sampson. Sunday-school superintendent, Dr. W. W. Gardner.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10 1-2 A. M. and 7 1-2 P. M. in summer; 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. in winter. Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Thursday evening, conference meeting at 7 1-2 P. M.

The former pastors of this church were: Rev. D. J. Mandell, Rev. A. A. Folsom, Rev. R. P. Ambler, Rev. J. W.

Ford, Rev. J. J. Twiss and Rev. Josiah Marvin. The society did not erect a house of worship until 1844. This was a plain brick edifice, on Main street opposite Bliss street, with stores in the basement, and was occupied by the church until it removed to its present location in May, 1869. The membership is now about 100; average congregation, 400; Sunday-school, 250; raised for church purposes the past year, $7,000.

The present house of worship was dedicated June 2, 1869. It is built of brick, with free-stone trimmings, and cost, with the site, nearly $50,000. It is 92 feet long, 65 wide, and 42 high from basement to roof apex in rear, with a tower 100 feet high. The audience-room contains 900 sittings, and below is a Sunday-school room which will accommodate 700 scholars, and a ladies' parlor and a sociable room, each 35 by 21 feet.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH, ROMAN CATHOLIC—Corner of State and Elliott streets. Founded in 1861. Rev. P. Healy, pastor; salary, $800. Sabbath services, 8, 8 1-2, 9 A. M., and 3 P. M.; the 9 A. M. service is for the children. Services are also held every week-day at 7 and 7 1-2 A. M. The church membership is over 8,000. The Sunday-school, which meets at 1 1-2 P. M., numbers 800; Hugh Donnelly, superintendent. A new church is to be built on Linden street, this year, to accommodate a portion of the large congregation. It is expected that a bishop will soon be appointed to reside here. St. Michael's church edifice occupies a slightly position, with ample grounds around it, and was built, when labor and material were low, for about $60,000.

ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH, ROMAN CATHOLIC—Corner Worcester and Pine streets, Indian Orchard. Founded in 1863. Under the pastoral care of Rev. P. Healy. Services every Sabbath morning; Sabbath-school at 1 P. M.

The church and congregation number about 400; Sunday-school, 100.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH, ROMAN CATHOLIC—Montague's Hall, East Bridge street. Founded in October, 1869. Rev. F. M. Turcott, pastor. Meetings on the Sabbath at 10 1-2 A. M. and 3 P. M.

The members of this church are mostly Canada French people, and number about 500. It is proposed to unite them with a similar organization at Mittenaeque, and build a house of worship there.

SECOND ADVENTISTS, or the Association of Believers in the Pre-Millennial Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ—Chapel on Vernon street. Rev. William N. Pile, pastor; settled, July, 1869; salary, $1,000. Deacons, James M. Currier, Charles E. Caldwell, J. K. Winter, James Towle. Sabbath-school superintendent, B. F. Thompson.

Meetings—Sabbath, with preaching, 10 1-2 A. M., and 2 1-4 P. M. Prayer-meetings, Sunday evening at 7 P. M., Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7 1-2 P. M.

The membership is about 250; congregation, 300; Sunday-school, 100. With free seats and congregational singing, the contributions during the past year amounted to $2,000.

THE NEW JERUSALEM CHURCH, OR SWEDENBORGIANS—Founded in 1853. Meet for divine worship Sabbath afternoons at their chapel, No. 3 Maple street.

FREE CONFERENCE SOCIETY, SPIRITUALISTS—Hold meetings in Barnes' Block, Main street, every Sabbath afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MANY OF OUR CHURCHES are associated with the others of their denomination in the county for Christian work and culture. The Westfield Baptist Association gathers in convention, the third Wednesday in September each year, representatives of each church of that denomination in the county; their total membership, as reported at the last convention, is 2,473; Sabbath-school scholars, 2,504; total contributions for the year, $31,938.

The Hampden Conference and Benevolent Association represents the Congregational churches of the county, in annual convention. Besides their own support, twenty-seven of the churches, at the last meeting, reported benevolent contributions for the year amounting to $21,114. Under the auspices of the Association, the different towns have been canvassed to ascertain their religious condition, and the Bible supplied to destitute families. The annual meeting this year is with the Third Church in Chicopee, the last Tuesday in October.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Rooms, 211 Main street; open from 9 A. M. till 10 P. M., and free to all. Young men and strangers in the city are cordially invited to come in. The reading-room is large, well-lighted and comfortable, and supplied with some twenty-five of the leading daily and weekly papers and magazines. Short prayer-meetings are held at the rooms every week-day morning at 8 1-2 A. M., Thursday evening at 9 P. M., Saturday evening at 8 P. M., and Sunday evening at 6 P. M. Social meeting, second Wednesday of each month. Annual meeting for election of officers, second Wednesday in November.

The Association was organized in 1864. Its members are from all the churches, and find many opportunities to do good. During the past year, many ladies have joined, adding to the interest of the meetings, while they reach and benefit those of their sex who need aid, sympathy and counsel. There is a committee of five ladies and five gentlemen in each ward to visit the sick. There is also one on boarding-houses and employment, at the head of which are Mrs. J. F. Chapman (34 Pynchon street) for the ladies, and Charles S. Marsh (J. S. Marsh & Co.) for the gentlemen. Other committees are also raised, while all endeavor to promote Christian religion among the young men and women of the city. Out-door preaching has been found successful. Meetings were held in the Opera House during the winter, with sermons from different pastors. Prayer-meetings are maintained in outlying districts.

Young people coming to the city find that their subsequent standing and success are determined largely at the outset, by their choice of good associates, care to improve leisure moments, and kind and helpful efforts for others in need.

Home for Friendless Women and Children.

No. 23 West Union street, Springfield. Officers—President, Mrs. Charles Merriam; Vice Presidents, Mrs. William Rice, Mrs. S. Merrick; Clerk, Mrs. N. A. Leonard; Treasurer, Mrs. Heman

Smith; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. R. Hixon; Auditor, Charles Marsh; Advisory Committee, Rev. S. G. Buckingham, George Walker, D. H. Brigham, O. W. Wilcox, Charles Marsh, A. L. Soule. Applications for admission may be made at the Home on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, between 3 and 5 P. M.

This institution was established in 1865, to provide a temporary home for friendless and destitute women and children, and to give them employment and instruction, with the ultimate design of providing for them a more permanent situation, or of fitting them to maintain themselves.

Twenty-nine women and forty-three children have been received into the Home, for a longer or shorter period the past year, and a number were sadly turned away for want of room. The building is over-crowded, and funds are being raised for a new one on Magazine street, for the children, for which land has been given and a portion of the money subscribed. Of the children received last year, 22 came from Springfield, 12 from other towns in Hampden County, 4 from Berkshire County, and 5 from Connecticut. One child was found at evening by the roadside, settling herself for the night on a little package of clothing, alone in the world, without father, mother, brother or sister, and cast out by others because too young to attend behind a bar. During the past five years, 143 children have been received. It is believed, that an average of 100 annually ought to be provided for. Poor women who go out to work would gladly place their little ones here for safety during the day, and pay for the care of them.

The Public Schools.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS—E. A. Hubbard. Office, City Hall. Office hours, from 12 M. to 1 P. M. of each school day; Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.

Strangers and citizens are alike interested in our public schools. These well repay a personal visit, and are benefited by it. They indicate, too, the growth, intelligence and virtue of the city.

Ten years ago there were in Springfield one evening and thirty-nine day schools; the pupils in them for the whole or a part of the year numbered 2,914, and the average attendance was 1,933. In May, 1870, there were ninety schools (as returned to the State), one hundred teachers, and 4,013 pupils in attendance. Ninety per cent. of all the children between the ages of five and fifteen go to the public schools,—a larger proportion than ever before, and a better show than most other cities can make.

Most of the schools are arranged in groups as follows: North Main street group, including all north of the B. & A. Railroad; Elm street group, including all between Worthington and York streets, and between the river and Chestnut and School streets; Worthington street group, including the streets near the depot, and from Chestnut street to the Armory, and from the B. & A. Railroad to State street; Armory Hill group, including the Fifth Ward; Central street group, including Pine street and the Chapel; and Indian Orchard group. Except on Worthington street, each of the large school-houses is occupied by a grammar school, divided into several grades as the different attainments of the pupils require. Around this, in the smaller, old school-houses, are the primary schools of the group. On Worthington street, the grammar school and primaries are in one building.

Children beginning in the primary school, in three years are prepared for the grammar school; here they study five years, rising through successive grades to the High School, where, in four years more, they are fitted for college, or the seminary, and so well fitted that Yale, Harvard and the other colleges have readily admitted pupils from here, and sometimes into advanced classes.

There is an ungraded school on State street, and to this the truant officers, by kind and judicious efforts, gather many children who would otherwise lose the advantages of education.

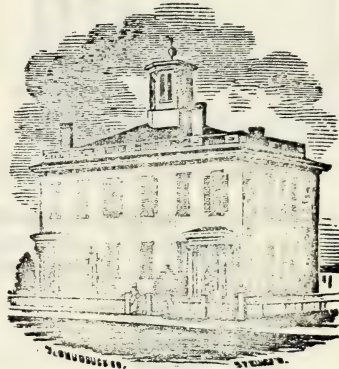

The truant school is at the almshouse, and numbers over 25 pupils. No doubt the aged and infirm inmates are somewhat annoyed by the boys, and it would seem that the city might afford another place for it. Juvenile offenders, who might grow up a burden to society and a "curse to themselves," are sent here. The teacher has given head, heart and hands to the instruction of these boys, and the change wrought in their manners and morals is most gratifying. Superintendent Hubbard says of them, in his report: "No company of boys, more gentlemanly, more manly than these, is seen in our churches, our Sabbath-schools, or on our streets."

A training school has also been established on West State street, and is found of great advantage to inexperienced teachers, who receive a smaller salary, and are here qualified to fill responsible positions as vacancies occur.

The High School is too large for its building, and takes a part of the City Hall lately occupied by the public library. Scientific subjects receive more attention in this school than formerly. Apparatus valued at $1,500 is provided for instruction in philosophy and chemistry; and lectures, connected with these branches, are given every Tuesday afternoon, which are open to the public.

The large school-houses of the city, with two exceptions, are new, and furnished with all the modern improvements. They are already well filled with pupils, and yet more room is wanted in some localities. No more gratifying evidence could be given of the growth of Springfield. People turn to look at these buildings in passing, as signs of the condition of the schools within; and strangers are attracted here, by the better facilities afforded for educating their children. Expenditures for educational purposes, by the city, the last few years, may have seemed large, but none will yield a better return. We have already stated, on page 19, the cost of each of the new school-houses; we give here engravings of them and also of two older ones, prepared expressly for the Directory. Below will also be found the location of the schools, number of pupils, and names of teachers and their salaries, the last being for the year beginning September, 1870.

Library and Museum of Natural History.

Located in new Library Building on East State street, above Chestnut. Officers—President, John L. King; Vice-President, Daniel L. Harris; Clerk, William Rice; Treasurer, J. D. Safford; Directors, George Bliss, Chester W. Chapin, J. M. Thompson, George Walker, Charles Merriam, J. G. Holland, James Kirkham, E. W. Bond, John B. Stebbins, Samuel Bowles; Auditors, Charles O. Chapin, R. F. Hawkins. Librarian, Rev. William Rice; salary, $1,250.

The new Library building has just been completed, costing, with the land, about $100,000. Its architecture is the modern adaptation of the gothic, prevalent during the middle ages on the continent of Europe, and in England now, and known as the "medieval revival." The building stands 60 feet back from the sidewalk and 12 or 14 feet above the level of the street. It is 100 feet long and 65 wide. The materials are brick, with trimmings of richly cut and carved light freestone from the Amherst quarries of Ohio, the exterior of the basement being of Monson granite. Two flights of broad granite steps, terminating in an arched stone porch, lead to the entrance hall, on the first floor, 20 feet wide, extending across the entire building. On the right of this is a room for the Museum, 30 by 50 feet, a similar room on the left for a reading room, and beyond is the Librarian's room. Above the first floor is the Library proper, with a clear, open space in the center, 60 feet long, 20 wide and nearly 50 high. A series of columns with connecting arches surround this spaceway, and from their capitals spring arched ribs, which meet under the roof above. From these columns radiate in every direction the alcoves and galleries of the Library. Each alcove is 17 feet high, and the galleries extend around the room. Light is admitted through large central sky-lights, 50 feet long, and also by windows in the alcoves: Two hot-air furnaces warm the building, and ventilation is effectually secured. George Hathorne of New York was the architect. Amaziah Mayo of this city was the contractor for all above the water table; Richard Ponsonby put in the granite foundations; Dwelly & Stone dressed the stone steps, posts and trimmings; Howe & Whittemore did the brick masonry.

The Library is now closed for cataloguing the books, and will not be open for several months. When the work of cataloguing is completed, it will be open every day to the public.

The number of volumes, June, 1870, was 27,600, exclusive of unbound pamphlets. The additions during the past year amount to about 1,100 volumes. The Directors intend to purchase all the new works of popular interest as they appear, and are also continually adding to the Library standard works of permanent value in the various departments of literature, science and art. Subscriptions, $1 per annum, for which two volumes can be drawn at once, and exchanged every day, at the library hours.

MUSEUM—Curators, R. B. Hildreth, C. A. Emery, C. W. Bennett, J. A. Allen, and Solomon Stebbins. The Museum is now closed for re-arrangement in the new Library building. This institution originated in 1860 with the Library Association, and occupied two rooms in the City Hall. It has about 1,500 species and upwards of 3,600 specimens of shells, classified by Dr. George A. Otis, formerly surgeon of the 27th Massachusetts Regiment; also 7,407 specimens of insects; 650 specimens of stuffed birds; 104 stuffed quadrupeds, including two enormous wildcats, killed in this county;

115 species of fish and reptiles; small cabinets of coral and crustacea; an extensive mineralogical cabinet; a large and very curious collection of fossils; numerous Indian and foreign antiquities, and several flags and various other trophies captured from the Southern rebels by our home troops. Additions are frequently made by the generosity of our citizens. Donations for the Library or Museum may be left with the Librarian, Rev. William Rice.

Springfield Gas Light Company.

Organized, 1848; Capital, $200,000. President, Marvin Chapin; Superintendent, George Dwight; Treasurer, J. D. Brewer. Office in Savings Bank Block, corner Main and State streets. Twenty-one miles of street mains have been laid, supplying that portion of the city between Round Hill and Mill River, and between the Connecticut River and Hancock street. There are about 1,500 consumers of gas; price $4 per thousand feet.

Hampden County Woman Suffrage Association.

This society has its head-quarters in this city, and holds its annual meetings here in June, with prominent speakers from abroad, in its behalf. It seeks to obtain for women an equal chance in education and employment with men; and "would have women take a greater interest in the affairs of social and public life, so that these may be better regulated, while nothing is to be changed that is now right in the relations of the sexes." President, Eliphalet Trask; Vice-Presidents, Dr. Jefferson Church, Mrs. Mary C. Jordan, Rev. Dr. George B. Ide, Rev. A. K. Potter, Rev. C. D. Hills, all of Springfield, and Dr. H. P. Wakefield of Monson; Recording Secretary, Mrs. M. W. Campbell of Springfield; Corresponding Secretary, F. B. Sanborn of Springfield.

The Springfield Aqueduct Company.

Organized in 1848; reorganized in 1864. Capital stock $184,800, with power to increase to $300,000. Two miles of pipe have been laid the past year, making a total of twenty-two miles; all this pipe is cement-lined sheet iron. The old reservoir on Armory road holds sixty million gallons of water, and the new one, just north of the Boston and Albany railroad track, fifteen millions. The daily consumption of aqueduct water in the warm season is about one million gallons; fifty thousand of which is for sprinkling the streets. The company have expended about $180,000.

Annual rates for water:—dwelling house, for one family, $8; two families, $12; $3 additional for bathing tub. Store or office, $4; hotel, $50 to $250; manufacturing establishments, 75 cents for each employe. Stationery steam engine, not exceeding ten horse-power, $6 per horse-power; each additional horse-power above ten, $4. Private stable, for one horse, $4; each additional horse, $2. Livery stable, for each horse, $2; building purposes, $10 for each hundred thousand brick used. Rents due on the first of April and October.

Officers—President and Treasurer, C.

L. Covell; Secretary, T. M. Brown; Directors, C. L. Covell, William Birnie, D. L. Harris, Henry Alexander, Jr., T. M. Brown, M. A. Clyde, J. M. Thompson, Caleb Rice, D. B. Wesson; Superintendent, Joseph C. Hancock; Bookkeeper and Collector, George F. Farmer. Office, 14 1-2 Bridge street.

City Hospital.

Located on Boston road east of the Army. Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Stiles. Patients pay $5 per week, and have excellent care and good quarters; if so sick as to need extra nurses, an additional charge is made for these, and also for medical attendance. The institution was established by the city the past year. The buildings, with two acres of land attached, when fitted for use, cost about $10,000.

A PEST HOUSE has been fitted up by the city, near Water Shop pond, for cases of small pox, whenever such occur.

The Alms-house and the Poor.

The alms-house and city farm are on North street, above Bancroft, and are under the care of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Howard. From fifteen to twenty poor people are usually supported here. They fare well,—better, perhaps, than many who do not come; comfort, cleanliness and good management are evident. The Truant School is also here, with Miss L. A. Bascom as teacher.

People who are very poor have yet a manly or womanly pride that keeps them from the alms-house. In cases of actual suffering from destitution, application is made to the Overseers of the Poor, and coal and food are given. Temporary relief was thus afforded by the city to over 600 persons the past year, mostly in the winter; $700 was given in coal, and as much more in food.

Travelers, who have not means to pay for bed and board, stop over night at the police station, in the basement of the City Hall. Over 1800 persons have availed themselves of the city's hospitality here during the year. Women and children, as well as men, all worthy people, thus found shelter. There is not much chance to sleep, except in chairs; but the room is large, and a good fire is provided all night when it is cold, and numbers do not increase the cost. In the morning, the "guests" have a few crackers, and go on their way, grateful. Of course, there are "tramps" who come, and who do not think the fare anything to boast of, and sometimes are inclined to go farther before stopping.

United States Armory.

Commanding Officer—James G. Benton, Br  vet Colonel Ordnance Corps; Assistant Commanding Officer, Isaac Arnold, Captain Ordnance Corps U. S. Army; Paymaster, and Storekeeper, Major E. Ingersoll.

The arsenal, offices, store-houses and principal shops are on nearly the highest ground in Springfield, on East State street, and command a fine view of the Connecticut River and the surrounding country. The heavier operations required are carried on at the Water Shops, on Mill River. Probably in no part of the world has the manufacture of muskets been carried to such perfection as here. The breech-loader, model of 1868, which is now made, is the combined result of the inventions and improvements applied by the government, and the highest skill displayed by private enterprise. The ingenious machinery, the perfect system in every department, and the taste and beauty displayed on the grounds, are the wonder and admiration of visitors from all parts of the world. The successive steps of progress in gun-making may be seen in the specimens of arms made here at different periods, and kept in the museum. Various muskets of other countries are also shown, and there are curious relics from the battle-fields of the War of the Rebellion. Great numbers of the muskets used in the war have been sent here; the cleaning and repairing of these, with the alteration of muskets of the model of 1861 to the breech-loading model of 1868, is the principal work of the men now employed.

Most of the men work by the piece. The eight-hour law prevails, the working hours being from 7 A. M. to 4 P. M. in summer, and 7 1-2 A. M. to 4 1-2 P. M. in winter. During the war, about 3,000 men were employed here, turning out about 1,000 muskets daily, but requiring some portion of the works to be run nights. During most of the spring of 1870, 690 men were at work, and altered about 200 guns per day. But the force is now reduced.

Springfield Cemetery Association.

Organized in 1841. President, George Bliss; Clerk and Treasurer, F. H. Harris; Superintendent, J. C. Shamp; Trustees; George Bliss, Henry Fuller, Jr., A. D. Briggs, Edmund Freeman, Justin Sackett, George Dwight, William H. Smith, W. C. Sturtevant, John L. King. The Cemetery grounds cover an extent of about forty acres, and from their opening in June, 1841, to January, 1870, 7,060 interments have been made in them, 275 of that number being from January, 1869, to January, 1870.

Swine.

For the sake of health and cleanliness, swine are exorcised from thickly settled portions of the city, by law as follows: "No swine shall be kept or maintained in the city within the limits of Wards Two and Three, nor in that part of Ward Six which lies northerly of the town brook and westerly of Main street, nor in that part of Ward Four which lies between the Springfield Cemetery and the avenue leading thereto from Maple street on the south and Pearl street on the north, nor in that part of Ward Four which lies westerly of a straight line extending from the easterly line of Byers street, at its intersection with the south line of Pearl street, to the easterly line of Cass street, at its intersection with the northerly line of Liberty street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies between Charles street and Chestnut street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies between Chestnut street and Main street southerly of Carew street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies westerly of Main street and the same extended and called Chicopee street and southerly of John street and the southerly line of the same extended east and west."

Hacks.

Every hackney carriage is required to have a license from the city the first of April each year, for which $1 is paid. The number of the license must be conspicuous on the carriage, and also posted inside, with the owner's name and rates of fare. Twenty-five hacks are licensed, and are owned as follows:—Henry & Marsh, 5; F. & J. M. Richmond, 5; E. C. Richmond, 5; W. B. C. Sexton, 2; Luke Hart, 1; Ivers & O'Keefe, 2; P. Hogan, 1; E. Alvord, 1; John Kennedy, 1; Thomas Donnelly, 1; Thomas Kennedy, 1.

The fares, as prescribed by law, are not to exceed the following rates: "For the conveyance, between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and ten o'clock in the evening, from any point to any point within that part of the city which is bounded southerly by Mill River from its mouth as far easterly as Walnut street; thence easterly by Walnut street as far north as its intersection with Hancock street; thence easterly and north-easterly by Hancock street to Worthington street; thence north-easterly by a straight line extending from the east side of Hancock street where it joins Worthington street to a point in the easterly line of Armory street at its crossing of the land of the Boston & Albany Railroad Company, the same being in the southerly line of the land of said Company; thence northerly by a straight line extending from the point last mentioned to the south-easterly corner of the City Farm; thence northerly by a straight line extending due west from the point last named to the Connecticut River; thence westerly by the Connecticut River to the place of beginning,—of a single passenger FORTY CENTS, and when two persons belonging to the same party are carried to the same place SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for both, and for each additional person belonging to the same party and carried to the same place TWENTY-FIVE CENTS; the conveyance of children between the ages of four and twelve years, if more than one, or if accompanied by an adult, half of the above named rates only is to be charged.

“For the conveyance of persons beyond the above named limits special reasonable rates may be charged. The charge for hackney carriages, when hired by the hour between the hours aforesaid, shall not exceed two dollars for the first hour, and one dollar and one-half per hour after the first hour, and for parts of hours after the first hour a proportional part of one dollar and one-half.

“For the use of hackney carriages within the above named limits, or when hired by the hour, between the hours of ten o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning, double the above established rates may be charged.

“Every owner, driver or other person having charge of any hackney carriage shall convey if requested, with each passenger, one trunk and the valise, carpet-bags, portmanteaus, bundles and baskets which may be used by such person in traveling, without charge or compensation therefor, but for every additional trunk so conveyed by him he shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of ten cents; and no owner, driver, or other person having charge of any hackney carriage shall neglect or refuse the application of any person for conveyance within his carriage, if such carriage be not occupied, engaged or employed at the time of making such application, and if, on demand the legal fare be tendered.”

In winter, some slight changes may be made in the hours of opening and closing the mails, etc., if railroad timetables are so changed as to require it.

Rates of Postage.

LETTERS—To any part of the United States, 3 cents for each half ounce or part thereof. To Canada and other British North American Provinces, 6 cents per half ounce, if prepaid, 10 cents if not. To Great Britain, 6 cents per half ounce if prepaid, double this, if not. To France, by direct steamer, 10 cents per one-fourth ounce; via England, 4 cents. To Germany, 10 cents per half ounce by direct mail, or 15 cents via England. To Italy, 14 cents per half ounce via Austria; 19 cents via England. To Greece, 19 cents per half ounce direct, or 24 via England. To Turkey, 15 cents to $1 per half ounce, according to destination.

Drop letters, 1 cent per half ounce. Advertised letters, no charge. For registering a valuable letter, the domestic rate is 15 cents; to Canada, 5 cents; to Great Britain, 8 cents. Money Orders, not exceeding $50, as follows: not exceeding $20, 10 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER, including newspapers and periodicals (not sent to subscribers,) proof-sheets, book manuscripts, pamphlets, blanks, &c., (except books and circulars,) 2 cents for each and every four ounces. Seeds and cuttings, &c., sent at these rates, but limited to two pounds. Books require double these rates.

UNSEALED CIRCULARS, (to one address,) not exceeding three in number, 2 cents.

No package will be forwarded by mail which weighs over four pounds. All packages of mail matter not charged with letter postage must be so arranged that the same can be conveniently examined by postmasters; or letter postage may be exacted. Any writing other than the simple direction upon an article of printed matter, or the envelope thereof, subjects the entire package to letter postage.

WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS (one copy only) sent to actual subscribers within the county where printed and published, free.

The following class of letters are not advertised: drop letters, unless a three-cent postage stamp is affixed; letters bearing request to be returned to writers if unclaimed; box letters; letters directed and sent to hotels, and thence returned to the post-office as unclaimed, being for strangers; letters returned from the dead letter office to writers; circulars, free packets, containing printed documents, speeches, and other printed matter, are not advertised. All other letters remaining in the office are advertised on Wednesday of each week; if not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to the dead letter office at Washington.

Who may be Found at the City Hall and Court House.

AT THE CITY HALL—On the first floor—A. T. Folsom, City Clerk, from 9 A. M. till 5 P. M. each week-day; E. A. Hubbard, Superintendent of Schools, from 12 M. to 1 P. M., each school day, and on Saturdays from 10 to 11 A. M.;

the Assessors have their room here, where they may be found a brief time each day of their labors in May and June, and when the valuation is completed they attend here to make any corrections; Francis Norton, Tax Collector, is at his office from September 1 to October 20, at 8 1-2 A. M. till 12 1-2 P. M., 2 to 5 1-2 and 7 to 8 P. M., and after that from 9 A. M. to 12 M., 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 P. M. The Mayor's office and the City Council rooms are also on this floor. The second floor is occupied by the large hall. In the basement are the Police Court room, where the court meets at 9 A. M., daily; Judge Morton's room; the Marshall's office, open day and night; the police station; the City Weigher's office; and the rooms of the Overseers of the Poor.

AT THE COURT HOUSE—On the first floor—Samuel B. Spooner, Register of Probate and Insolvency; George B. Morris, Clerk of Courts; James E. Russell, Register of Deeds; M. Wells Bridge, County Treasurer. The second floor is used for holding courts.

Places Worthy of Notice from Strangers.

THE CITY HALL, fronting Court Square, erected at an expense of $100,000, ranks among the finest buildings in New England. It has an audience room capable of holding 3,000 persons, and accommodations for all city officers, Police Court, a portion of the High School, etc.

THE CEMETERY, in the south-easterly part of the city, has its main entrance from Maple street, near its junction with Central street, with an entrance for carriages also from Pine street, and for people on foot from Mulberry and from Union streets. Although within the city, it is so secluded its existence would hardly be suspected by a stranger. On a portion of it, the forest trees still grow, and "Nature vies with Art in producing one of the most charming combinations of hill and valley, stream and fountain, trees and flowers, slopes and terraces, and winding foot-paths and open carriage-ways, imaginable." There are forty acres in the grounds, and the south part has recently been laid out in lots, and a number of beautiful and appropriate memorials of the dead erected.

THE UNITED STATES ARMORY, on East State street, is described on page 65. Visitors see here the most perfect works for gun-making, great stores of arms, many mementoes of war, (including marks of the fight here in the Shays rebellion,) and views of the surrounding country from the top of the arsenal. Over fifty acres of land are owned here by the government. Near the south-east corner of the fine iron fence, and outside of it, is a quaint old mile-stone, worth looking at, and erected by a man who had lost his way, long before Directories were published.

HAMPDEN PARK, north of B. & A. R. R., between the Connecticut River and Fulton street; having one entrance from Clinton street, and another from Plainfield street. Inaugurated September 29, 1857. Purchased and improved by the Hampden County Agricultural Society at a cost of $31,600, for an exhibition ground; "the finest and most convenient location the society could have fixed upon, and unsurpassed for beauty and fitness by any lot devoted to a similar purpose in the world."

Great Freshets.

Highest rise of water in Connecticut River—1801, twenty-one feet six inches; 1843, April 18, twenty feet eight inches; 1854, May 1, twenty-three feet six inches; 1856, August 21, eighteen feet nine inches, (Camp Thompson inundated); 1859, March 20, twenty feet six inches; 1862, April 20, twenty-two feet two inches, (Hampden Park flooded); 1865, March 18, eighteen feet ten inches; 1869, April 21, twenty-one feet (Hampden Park flooded); October 4, 1869, twenty-one feet six inches (Hampden Park flooded).

Indian Orchard.

This thriving village is in the north-east part of Springfield, one mile north of the Indian Orchard station on the Boston and Albany Railroad, and seven miles from the City Hall. It is laid out with straight, wide streets, crossing each other at right angles, and contains about 1,500 inhabitants. There are two churches, a large, new school-house, three dry goods and four grocery stores, one apothecary and one cigar store and manufactory, a post office, two hotels, Library Hall, two cotton mills, one omnibus line, and a horse railroad, reservoir, gas works, etc. Many a Western place has set up as a city with far less than these.

Indian Orchard mills and much of the land in the vicinity are owned by J. C. Howe & Co., of Boston; George O. Hovey is President of the Corporation, and Edward Atkinson, Treasurer, both gentlemen belonging to Boston; Chas. J. Goodwin is Superintendent, and A. S. Packard, Paymaster. The mills contain 860 looms and 41,000 spindles, and turn out from 150,000 to 160,000 yards per week of shirtings, denims, and sheetings; two kinds of the latter are made, one of standard quality, the other a lighter fabric. A wise and liberal policy distinguishes the corporation in its dealings with employes, and gives character and permanence to the community. The operatives agree to refrain from the use of intoxicating liquors and profanity, observe the Sabbath, and pay their debts. The corporation have erected Library Hall for the use of the employes, with a reading-room, library and hall that will seat some 300. The library contains about 1,500 volumes, of popular interest and permanent value, and new books are constantly added. The reading-room is supplied during the winter with the Springfield Daily Republican, Boston Daily Advertiser, eight or ten weekly papers, and fifteen monthly periodicals. The employes very generally avail themselves of these advantages. A better class of people are drawn here by them, and induced to settle. Evidence of this is seen in the schools, the houses, yards, lawns and flower-gardens. Formerly the children in the mills failed to attend school, although the law required it. A half-time school was therefore established, and these children induced to go. They work in the mills in the forenoon, attend school till 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and work the remainder of the day; those working by the piece earn nearly as much as they did before. There is also an evening school for older people.

The corporation prefer to sell lots only to those who will settle and build up the place, and to their employes. The latter are encouraged to build homes for themselves. Land is sold them at a very low price, and two-thirds the money to erect a house is loaned them for ten years, at a low rate. Twelve houses were thus built the past year, and fifteen more soon will be, the lots having been purchased.

Capitalists might put up establishments here, where land is so cheap, and facilities for conveyance provided, with great profit.

The city is constructing a fire engine-house here, to cost $1,000. If it would expend a small sum on the side-walks, the value of taxable property would be increased, by new residents, and a just cause of complaint would be removed.

Sixteen Acres.

This is chiefly a farming community, and is six miles east of City Hall, and two miles south of the Indian Orchard station on the railroad. There are, perhaps, not more than a dozen houses clustered together, with a grist-mill, blacksmith shop, ward building for voting and a school-house near by. Two freestone quarries are in the neighborhood. The people expect our horse railroad will be extended there. And then, when the vicinity of Lake Como becomes too thickly settled, their land will be wanted for city lots and suburban villas.

PATENTED NOV. 23, 1869.

CURTIS & MITCHELL,

NO. 24 CONGRESS STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

Price $275.00. Fitted for Steam $25.00 extra. Cuts 30 Inches.

The superiority of this Machine is in its Great Power, and the rapidity of its operation. The Knife passes through the paper with a SLIDING MOTION.
 The cut is Clean, Smooth and True. The Knife having descended to a given point rises immediately, without reversing the motion of the machine. There are both back and side gauges.
 The Machine is very Simple in its Construction, and will not readily get out of order.

REFERENCES.

One of the MINERVA PAPER CUTTERS has been in use in my Office for two months past, thus far accomplishing fully what was claimed for it.

MR. RENNE,

OF PITTSFIELD, MASS.

In experimenting with cases of Rheumatism, has discovered that a certain combination of Oils, with the juices of Plants, forms a medical compound, the use of which cures all Pain and Inflammation as water quenches fire.

He now has in his possession a large number of certificates from people "right at home," in Pittsfield and other towns, showing the great value of his

PAIN-KILLING MAGIC OIL,

And the more they use it, and become acquainted with its virtues, "THE BETTER THEY LIKE IT." They all say,

"It Works Like a Charm."

Reader—Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Headache!

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Toothache!!

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Neuralgia!!!

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Cholera Morbus!!!!

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Rheumatism!!!!

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil cures Lameness!!!!

Renne's Pain Killing Magic Oil cures Skin Diseases!!!

Mark this!—This Magic Oil does not "SET BROKEN BONES," or replace simple or compound fractures, produced by external violence; but, after your skillful surgeon has reduced the dislocation, or replaced the broken bones, its use helps the healing and reunion process, gives the absorbents activity, subdues inflammation and furthers a cure wonderfully!

Some folks seem to be proud of telling how "lame their shoulders are"—of "my crick in the back"—or, "I have got the Sciatica"—and delight in bragging that "nothing can cure me!"—but when we get such "awful folks" to use faithfully, we not only cure their lameness and charm away their pains, but we actually take all that kind of "brag out of them!" and they frankly own up and say, "It works like a charm!"

Call on your Druggist or Merchant, where you trade, for

and if he has not got it in store, he will send for it at your request, and sell it to you at the manufacturer's lowest price at retail. It is put up in three sizes, known as "Trial Size Bottles," "Medium Size Bottles," and "Large Family Size Bottles."

SOLD BY ALL WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS, AND BY RETAIL DEALERS IN MEDICINE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

MOORE BROTHERS, OPPOSITE COURT SQUARE, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Remember that they are the only ones in this vicinity that are working

THE GENUINE "BERLIN PROCESS."

The Silver Pigment used in finishing or re-touching the Negative is the same as used by all the first-class galleries in Europe. By the New Art we are now able to furnish all our customers with those splendid pictures, doing away with all the imperfections of the old process, softening all the irregularities of the skin, and making the picture soft and delicate. You are invited to call and examine specimens

AT OUR GALLERY AND STUDIO, OPP. COURT SQUARE, UP ONLY ONE FLIGHT.

ALBANY AGRICULTURAL WORKS,

Hamilton St., corner of Union and Liberty Sts.,

ALBANY, N. Y.

These Works were established by the present Superintendent during the years

1847, 1848 & 1849,

Since which date their Agricultural Machinery has gained a world-wide recognition for

Superior Workmanship, Adaptability, Durability, Efficiency and Cheapness

When compared with those of any other Works for the same class of manufactures.

During the past year the proprietors have largely increased their

FACILITIES, PATTERNS AND STOCK

And greater inducements are offered to

Planters, Farmers and Dealers

To handle these manufactures, thereby enabling all to avail themselves of the

VERY BEST

At the most reasonable prices

COMPATIBLE WITH ACTUAL COST FOR CONSTRUCTION.

A continuance of the patronage of a discerning public is earnestly solicited, the proprietors assuring them entire satisfaction with their wares and fair dealing.

Liberal inducements are offered to agents to sell again, also, on large bills to one order.

☞ Illustrated Descriptive and Price Catalogues furnished gratis on application.
